Tommy Gage, Sheriff

May 28, 2012

On May 28, 2012, at approximately 4:10 pm, The Montgomery County Sheriff's Office responded to a shooting at a location on West Green Vine in The Woodlands, Texas. Upon arrival, deputies found a 44 year old female and 56 year old male deceased from gunshot wounds they had received. Montgomery County Sheriff's Office Crime Scene Investigators and Major Crime Detectives responded to the scene.

The initial investigation indicates the male and female were husband and wife and had been separated. The male came over to the West Green Vine address today, shot the female and then took his own life. The names are currently being withheld until next of kin are notified.

The Sheriff's Office Investigators are still in the early stages of the investigation.
